The MLS Done Right.

When we post your property to the local MLS system, we'll make sure the description is engaging and that the pictures present your property in its best light. This is a fundamental, but very important step that a lot of agents get wrong!

Remax Company Database!

Our group offices is the largest in Greater Vancouver area. With the power of numbers, your property will be directly visible to our extremely large number of real estate agents.

We'll make sure that everyone we know is familiar with your property. (And we know a lot of people!)

The Usual Stuff

- Pricing Your Property Right
- Staging It To Sell
- Open Houses
- Broker's Open Houses
- Newspaper Ads (Maybe)
- Negotiating On Your Behalf...

While most agents do a good job at the "usual stuff," the "usual stuff" doesn't interest to-day's modern buyer.

While most of our competitors are skipping the first 11 items in this list, we're busy making sure your property is exposed and presented to as many buyers as possible.

If it looks like we rely heavily on web marketing, that's because we do!

Why? 90% of buyers are searching for property online....

And THEY'RE DEFINITELY GOING TO KNOW ABOUT YOURS....!

The Phone!

This one's a simple step that most of our competitors never think to take. We're going to call the 5 agents who have participated in the most recent sales in your area. Chances are good these agents might have other buyers looking in the neighborhood. It will be our job to keep your property top-of-mind with area agents from other companies.

Food, Wine & Real Estate

FOOD

Nook Restaurant

I have frequented Yew St in Kitsilano for food and drinks quite often over the years and when I heard that Nook Restaurant was moving into the old Rossini's space, I was intrigued. Knowing the history of Nook on Denman Street and its massive following but never tasting their food I was waiting patiently for the doors to open. Finally I got my chance in June and I totally got hooked on the Nook!

I have been there at least eight times since and can say that it is now my favourite Italian restaurant in the city. The daily antipasto plate is superb and always the same, burrata cheese, white beans, fresh prosciutto and warm crostini ($12). One of my dining partners mentioned that it was the best appetizer he has ever had. Throughout my several visits inside of three weeks, I had as a starter the Buffalo mozzarella and arugula salad ($12). The mains that I have sampled are the Gnocchi with baby meatballs ($15), Salami and olive pizza ($18) and the Margherita Pizza ($16). These wood oven pizzas are truly delicious and the crust is a the perfect combination of chewy and crisp. They also have a take-out counter with some additional menu items. I tried the Meatball sandwich ($10). It is hands down the absolute best that I have ever tried.

This Italian eatery has been a great addition to the ever improving dining on Yew St. The atmosphere is fun and inviting and the service is top notch. I highly recommend planning an evening out to Nook Restaurant.

WINE

Inniskillin Pinot Noir

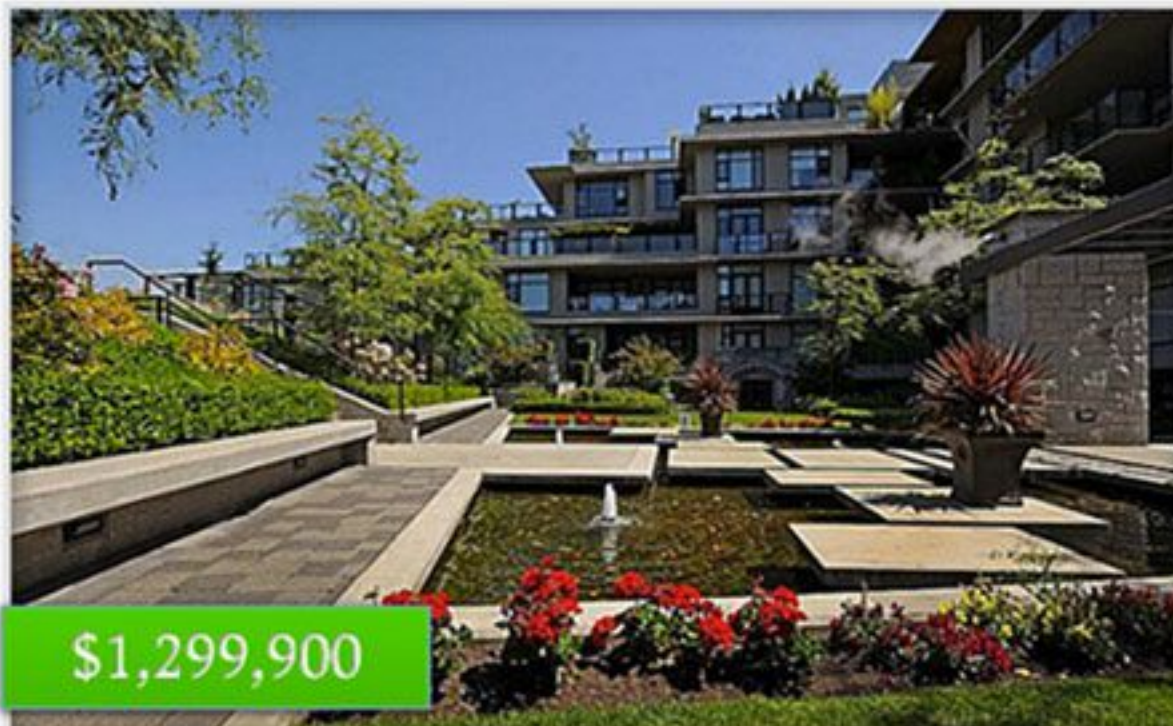

Since 1994, Inniskillin has operated a winery in Okanagan, British Columbia (Inniskillin Okanagan) in addition to their original location (Inniskillin Niagara). I had the pleasure to visit this winery a few years back and enjoyed everything I tasted, especially the pinot noir. I recently picked up a bottle at the BC Liquor Store and at $18.99 this is a very good pinot noir. It has raspberry and cherry flavours with a touch of earth tones and medium tannins. The use of French oak barrels makes this a food-friendly match for a wide range of dishes but especially for roast turkey or chicken with deep flavoured seasoning.
